SUNDAY-SCHOOL REPORT, No. 1.

The Sunday-school Board, to whom was referred a paper concerning the editorial management of the Epworth Era, have carefully considered the same, and recommend its adoption in the following modified form:

"Whereas, The permanency and progress of the Church depends, in a large measure, on the proper instruction and training of its children and youth, and it is of the utmost importance that they should be inspired with a love and veneration for the Church, and a deference to authority and obedience to law, which shall be to them a safeguard from sin and the foundation of strong character, and

Whereas, We have observed, with painful regret, an editorial policy inconsistent with the proper education of our young people, therefore,

Resolved, That while we affirm our belief in the doctrines of liberty of conscience and freedom of speech, as taught and guarded in the Word of God, and a jealous concern for their preservation, nevertheless we disapprove of the editorial management of the Epworth Era, and respectfully appeal to the authorities controlling it to change its policy.

FRANK RICHARDSON,
E. W. MOORE,
B. W. S. BISHOP.

W. THOMAS, President.
J. A. BURROW, Secretary.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL REPORT, No. 2.

Your Committee on Sunday-schools report as follows: Number of schools, 625; an increase of 59. Number of officers and teachers, 4,403; an increase of 199. Scholars, 38,013; an increase of 749. Amount expended for needy Sunday-schools, $652.82; an increase of $395.97. Amount collected on "Children's Day," $265.29; an increase of $64.17.

Your Committee note that only a small per cent. of our Sunday-schools are organized into missionary societies, and that only about one-third of our pastors have observed "Children's Day."

We recommend for their careful consideration

1. Paragraph 247 of our Discipline, which says: "Let every Sunday-school, so far as practicable, be organized into a Missionary Society, auxiliary to the Board of Missions."

2. Paragraph 248, which reads as follows: "The Third Sunday in May, or as near thereto as practicable, shall be observed as Children's Day throughout our church, with appropriate services, and on that day a collection shall be taken up for the aid of needy Sunday-schools, the advancement of the Sunday-school work under the direction of the Annual Conference Sunday-school Board, and for Christian Education."

3. Paragraph 243, which recommends the holding of District Sunday-school Conferences, and in addition, that a Sunday-school Conference be held in each pastoral charge, if practicable.

We note with pleasure the increasing excellence of our Sunday-school literature, and earnestly urge its use in all our Sunday-schools.

Your Committee offer the following:

Resolved, That we greatly appreciate the efficient labors of our retiring Sunday-school editor, Rev. W. G. E. Cunyningham, and pray that the remaining days of his valuable life may be full of blessings, and the end peace.

Sixty-six Epworth Leagues are reported, with a membership of 2,488.

EDUCATIONAL REPORT, No. 1.

Your Board of Education beg leave to submit the report of its Treasurer, and offer it as Report No. 1.

We have received from the Conference $660.50, obtained as follows:

Abingdon District.....	$ 67 99	Big Stone Gap District..	$ 18 90
Chattanooga District...	85 03	Cleveland District.....	29 37
Knoxville District.....	100 31	Morristown District....	71 06
Radford District.....	141 47	Tazewell District.....	61 00
Sequatchee District	9 80	Wytheville District.....	75 57

It is but meet and proper that honorable mention should be made of the Radford District, which has increased its contribution over last year more than two hundred per cent., and now easily heads the list, having forty-one per cent. more than the remaining nine districts.

We beg leave to call the attention of the Conference to the errors that appear in the reports to the Statistical Secretary.

In the Big Stone Gap District, Big Stone Gap Station reports to Secretary $6.00 paid, when in fact only $5.00 was paid.

Dickinsonville reports $6.00 paid, when only $4.00 is paid.

Powell's Valley reports $2.00 paid, when nothing has been paid.

Big Stone Gap Mission, reports $5.00 paid, when nothing is paid.

Radford District, Staffordsville has paid $2.00 and has not reported it to the Secretary.

Princeton Station reports $17.70 paid, when it has paid only $12.00.

Sequatchee District, Jasper Circuit reports $8.30 paid, when it has not paid one cent.

We believe it is nothing but carelessness on the part of the brethren, and insist that more thought be given to a better method of doing business.

The $660.50, given by the Conference, is distributed to your three Colleges in proportion to their respective claims as follows:

Emory and Henry.....	$630 32

Respectfully submitted,

REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION, No. 2.

We congratulate the church on the fact that after many years of unorganized effort in our school work, the late General Conference established a Board of Education, the object of which is to systematize and unify the work so that hereafter loss by friction and unwise plans may be avoided.

The presence and counsel of Dr. W. W. Smith, Secretary of the Parent Board, has afforded us great gratification and help. We believe his valuable labors will add greatly to the success of our educational work, and we hope the day of isolated, unorganized and spasmodic effort in this most important department of our work is now past and gone.

From information furnished us by the various schools, the year 1893-94 was a hard year on our educational work; but it is gratifying to know that our Colleges and Academies have weathered the storm of hard times, and are now, at the opening of the present scholastic year, moving off hopefully with an increased patronage. It has required skillful management and earnest effort to steer these institutions through the breakers which have wrecked so many financial crafts. Thank God, brighter skies are above us, and our schools are intact. They were, perhaps, never in better condition as to facility and general outfit for doing the work of Christian education.

EMORY AND HENRY COLLEGE.

The catalogue of Emory and Henry College shows one hundred and three young men and boys in attendance the past year. Had it not been for the alarm created by the prevalence of small pox at Saltville and Glade Springs during several months, it is probable that the enrollment would have exceeded that of the previous year despite the hard times. We are gratified at being able to state that the income from all sources was sufficient to meet the current expenses of the year, and that by the collection of old debts and the gifts of a few friends the financial obligations of the college have been reduced some three thousand dollars.

The present collegiate year, all things considered, opens well, and the outlook is favorable for an increased enrollment.

The faculty at present is composed of young but mature men, who have had and improved the best opportunities.

HIWASSEE COLLEGE.

Hiwassee College, now in its forty-sixth year, reports an enrollment of seventy during the past session. No changes have been made in the government of the school—the faculty remaining the same.

To supply a want, long-felt in the community where the college is located, for the first time in its history its doors have been thrown open to young woman. This experiment has proved successful and will be continued.

Like all our Church Colleges, Hiwassee should be endowed, and in this way be enabled to broaden its sphere of usefulness. The design of the management of Hiwassee College is to secure to those of moderate means an opportunity to obtain a thorough education, cheap rates of board and tuition, yet put them under able, experienced and Christian teachers.

FEMALE COLLEGES.

Our female colleges, Martha Washington, Sullins and Centenary, all report for the past year reasonable success in the face of the severe financial pressure, and notwithstanding three Universities and two Colleges within the bounds of our Conference have opened their doors for co-education. The friends of colleges conducted solely for female education will do well to note this significant fact. These colleges have opened well for the present scholastic year. They are worthy of the patronage of our people, and we urge our pastors to see to it that young ladies needing Christian education, and who are going off to college, shall avail themselves of the superior advantages of our own institutions.

In the absence of any report from People's College, we learn that Robert N. Davis has been elected President, and Rev. Thos. L. Bryan elected Professor. This school the past year was under the Presidency of Rev. J. W. Carnes, now Professor in Martha Washington College.

Pryor Institute at Jasper, Tenn., is an excellent property, and is now thoroughly organized under the management of Benjamin Atkins, President, and J. C. Hicks, Professor, with suitable assistants in the various departments of academic work. We believe this school was never before so worthy every way of a liberal patronage, and we shall be surprised if it does not succeed well for the coming year.

In addition to these Colleges, we have District Academies which we are informed are doing good work. Among these, Princeton Academy at Princeton, W. Va., and Jonesville Academy at Jonesville, Va.

We will be excused for calling the attention of the Conference to the following facts in regard to the Parent Board of Education.

First, Ten per cent. of Children's Day collections goes to the Parent Board of Education. This should be sent to the Treasurer of the Conference Board, to be forwarded.

Second, One half of the unapplied funds in the hands of the Sunday-school Board goes to the educational fund of this Conference Board.

Third, Of the assessment of $10,000.00 made by the Parent Board of Education upon the whole church, $375.00 has been apportioned to our Conference. The assessment for next year made by this Conference Board is $250.00, including the $375.00 apportioned by the Parent Board.

We recommend that the sum raised for educational work in this Conference be applied to the sustenance of our Conference Colleges, to which we look for the higher education of our young preachers, and that the moneys be distributed in proportion to the amounts of tuition remitted by our colleges to young ministers; and we further recommend that the presidents of our colleges comply with the law enacted at the session of 1889, requiring that each young man give a bond obligating himself to refund the remitted tuition in case he fails to devote himself to the work of the ministry, and that satisfactory evidence be furnished the Treasurer that these bonds have been executed before he disburses the funds or admits the claim.

COLORED EDUCATIONAL WORK.

We heartily approve the educational work our church is attempting for the colored people, and recommend that the $500.00 asked of us by the Parent Board be apportioned to the several districts as are other collections ordered by the Conference.

We recommend that a conference of the educators from our Colleges and Academies be held at Emory and Henry College some time in June next, under the auspices of the Conference Board of Education. The object of this conference will be to discuss the whole question of our educational work, and to unify and harmonize our efforts to the ideas and plans of the Parent Board as far as is practicable.

REPORT OF BIBLE CAUSE.

Your Committee to whom was referred the "Bible Cause" submits the following report:

As a church we cannot overestimate the importance of a general and free circulation of the Holy Scriptures. "Bible Cause" is, in the broadest and highest sense, the cause of God and the hope of fallen humanity. The Bible is truly the light of the world. Without it nations and individuals grope in moral darkness and eke out a miserable life without the faintest conception of their individual responsibility to God and the life to come. Where the Bible is not known, every form of vice and sin runs riot. Too much emphasis cannot be given to the vital importance of a careful study of the Holy Scriptures, for when studied by honest minds, preached by an intelligent ministry, and interpreted not only by the accumulated learning of the world, but by the blessed influence of the Holy Spirit, it becomes the power of God unto salvation of millions of souls. It is the solid foundation upon which the sacredness of our homes, the usefulness of the Sunday-school, the perpetuity of the church, and the stability and progress of Christian civilization must forever rest.

The free circulation of the Bible has had much to do in breaking the power of Romanism in the Old World, and is one of the best safeguards in our own country against the encroachments of that huge system of idolatry and superstition. For the circulation and supply of this Sacred Book, the main reliance in this country and for Foreign Missionary work of the churches is the "American Bible Society." This Society is thoroughly unsectarian and benevolent in its character, supplying the Bible at cost.

Your Committee has received from all the pastoral charges the meagre sum of $19.00. This mere pittance, together with $22.00 reported as having been turned over to the lawful agents of the American Bible Society, makes $41.00 as the sum total of what Holston Methodism has done for that noble Society the past year.

In the light of the above facts, be it Resolved:

1st. That we endorse the action of the late General Conference which will make the Bible Cause a subject of consideration in our Quarterly, District and Annual Conferences.

2nd. That the President of the Conference be, and he is hereby requested to appoint John Boring, whose duty it shall be to look after the general interest of the American Bible Society within the bounds of our entire Conference.

3rd. That we continue to extend to the unsectarian and benevolent Society our hearty sympathy and our fervent prayers.
J. O. STRALEY.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The progress of the Church in our Conference during the past year has been most satisfactory. From Bramwell, W. Va., to Hinton, Ga., great revivals have followed the labors of our preachers. Conversions numbering thousands have been witnessed, and there have been added to our membership, 4,747.

There is just cause for deep gratitude that all the preachers have been preserved blameless in life and have had their labors so abundantly blessed. We note with pleasure the fact that most of our revivals have been held by our own preachers.

We feel sure that a careful examination would show our people to be growing in all the Christian graces. Worldliness in many places is becoming very distasteful to the members of the Church. Dram-drinking and like practices are being more and more discountenanced in the Church.

Family worship, in this busy age, is being much neglected, yet many of our people still cling to the old-time custom of family prayers.

Many of the preachers, and people as well, have suffered financially, but we doubt whether the Church was ever supported more cheerfully, or hardships more meekly borne.

The Sunday-schools of the Church have been a great power for good. The Epworth League work has been advanced greatly. The Annual Conference at Morristown in June was an occasion of great spiritual profit to our young people, and to the community in which it was held.

While the collections may not be large, yet we are glad to note a growing interest in the spread of the Gospel.

We are especially pleased to note the improvement in the quantity and quality of our Missionary Literature. It is just cause for rejoicing that the Methodists are becoming more and more a reading people.

We are thankful for the work done by the women and children of the Church, both in home and foreign fields.

Our hearts leap with joy that we are soon to have an asylum for the orphan. This work is to be accomplished by the Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission Society, with the hearty co-operation of the Conference.

Feeling grateful to God for His blessing, we should, as preachers and laymen, endeavor more fully to consecrate ourselves to His service, that we may be more useful in accomplishing His purposes.

BOARD OF MISSIONS, No. 2.

The Board has had under its care the past year twenty-seven Missions, to which was appropriated the sum of $3,600. The amount assessed for Domestic Missions was $7,000. Of this sum, only $3,548.52 has been collected and reported to our Treasurer, leaving a deficit of $57.73, due the Missionaries for the year now ending, after exhausting our reserve fund of $265.40.

This condition the Board deeply deplores. Only $4,453.73 has been collected for Foreign Missions, including a special contribution of $68.41, raised at Wabash camp-meeting for the Japan Mission.

The depleted condition of our Treasury, and the general financial stringency still prevailing throughout our country, forbid, in the judgment of the Board, any increase in the appropriations for the ensuing year.

The assessments for the next year for Foreign and Home Missions are as follows:

	FOREIGN MISSIONS.	HOME MISSIONS.
Radford District.....	$ 900 00	$700 00
Tazewell District	900 00	700 00

Cleveland District	750 00	600 00
Chattanooga District	1,125 00	875 00
Sequatchee District.....	500 00	375 00

The following Missions will be under the care of the Board the ensuing year. They are in number 31; and though less than the number asked for, and which under more favorable circumstances might, with great propriety be established, the Board is obliged to limit its promises to pay within its probable income, or involve the Church in a humiliating debt.

As your servants we have done the best it was possible for us to do with the means at our command.

The Board takes great pleasure in heartily commending the valuable work being done by our Christian women through the Woman's and Juvenile Missionary Societies, and the Woman's Parsonage and Home Missionary Organization.

In conclusion we submit the following resolutions for your adoption:

Resolved, That we recommend that all our pastors and people observe the "Do Without Week," suggested by the Parent Board of Missions as a plan of supplementing our collections for Foreign Missions, in the months of January and February.

Resolved, That we recommend the plan of the pastor's appointing special collectors to co-operate with him in raising his assessments for Missions.

Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of a Corresponding Secretary for the Conference by the presiding Bishop, to aid the preachers as far as he can by correspondence and otherwise in holding Missionary mass-meetings, procuring and distributing Missionary literature, etc., in the interest of Missions.

Resolved, That as pastors we actively interest ourselves in increasing greatly the circulation of our most excellent Missionary Review among our people generally.

JAS. I. CASH, Secretary.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

The M. E. Church, South, has always been for temperance, and its every official utterance upon the subject has been positive and pronounced. The drinking of spirituous liquors, except in cases of necessity, has not only been regarded as evil and unbecoming its members, but is positively prohibited in its book of discipline. The selling of intoxicating drinks is now declared to be an immorality. There is no question as to our church's attitude towards intemperance.

The Holston Conference is in perfect accord with all it has said and done upon this subject, and has from time to time given full expression to its feelings and sympathies. We therefore re-affirm our former declarations with regard to this great evil, and earnestly pray that the time will soon come when the blight and curse of strong drink and the demoralization attendant upon the liquor traffic, will be forever banished from our land.

J. P. MCFERRIN,
R. T. McDOWELL.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals desire to express their high appreciation of the excellent literature disseminated by our Publishing House during the past year. It has been in every way worthy of the great Church it represents.

In the report of the Publishing House, the gain in assets for the past year is $47,226.22. The gain on assets for the previous year, as shown by the report in the Annual, was $50,131.00. These figures show a loss for the past year in net assets of $2,904.78. The data necessary for a comparison of other items are not obtainable.

The Report of the Committee on Books and Periodicals in last year's Annual strongly sets forth the necessity of obtaining correct and specific data from which to make this report, in order that the work done in this department might, at the close of each year, be compared with that of the previous year. The report recommended that our General Conference have the Publishing House to issue a blank for Annual Conference reports which shall provide for books and periodicals. This recommendation, so eminently wise and necessary, was entirely ignored, and hence your present committee are without the requisite data for a report.

The Christian Advocate has fully maintained its former high standard of excellence. We heartily approve the firm and manly, yet Christian spirit, in which it has met and refuted the unjust charges so frequently brought against our people. Firm, but courteous, liberal yet loyal, thoroughly religious in tone and teaching, it ought to be a welcome guest in every Southern Methodist home.

It is with pleasure we note that the circulation of our Sunday-school periodicals extends largely beyond the bounds of our own schools. It is the sense of your Committee that no

Sunday-school teacher or superintendent should be without the magazine. It is matter of deep regret that only about one-third of our teachers now take it.

The Epworth Era, having already been a subject of criticism at the hands of this Conference, we dismiss it with the hope that in future it will more correctly represent the objects for which it was originated, and will therefore merit and receive a wider circulation.

The Methodist Review of Missions has about 125 subscribers in the Holston Conference, and is worthy of a larger circulation.

The Quarterly Review, in the hands of its present gifted editor, will commend itself to the more intelligent and thinking classes of our preachers and people.

The Holston Methodist has, during the past year, greatly increased its subscription—has in fact doubled it in the city of Knoxville. All its current expenses have been promptly met, and the editor has been paid in full. Let no effort be spared to place it in every Methodist home in our Conference.

Your Committee respectfully recommend the appointment Rev. T. F. Glenn as editor, and Rev. J. A. Burrow as assistant editor of the Holston Methodist for the ensuing year.

W. N. WAGNER, Chm'n.

REPORT ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

DEAR FATHERS AND BROTHERS:—Your Committee to whom was referred the records of the District Conference beg leave to submit the following report:

These records contain an interesting part of the church's history. It is important that they be carefully preserved, and also neatly and accurately kept. Each of the books of the ten Districts have been before your committee and are in good condition, with the full accounts of the proceedings and reports of the several District Conferences faithfully recorded.

The minutes of the Radford District are plainly written, and no corrections worthy of mention are noted.

In the record of the Tazewell District the word "session" was omitted in the minutes of the second day. With a few exceptions like this one, the minutes are carefully and well kept.

The proceedings of the Wytheville District Conference are well kept. The writing is somewhat crowded and run together. This grammatical error occurs: "The following resolutions was offered."

The Abingdon District Conference record is well arranged, but not otherwise faultless. Different kinds of ink are used in the body of the paragraphs, and the punctuation is faulty. In the minutes of the second day no distinction between the delegates and alternates to the Annual Conference is made, the words "were elected delegates" having been omitted. It is evident that two persons of different proficiency have written these minutes.

Tastefully written, in a clear, easy penmanship, are the Morristown District Conference minutes. There are some undue abbreviations. Capital letters are not used in introducing direct quotations. Punctuation is so little used as to render some expressions ambiguous.

In the records of the Big Stone Gap District there are interlinings, omissions, and little use of capital letters in beginning sentences. The announcements on the third day were not definite.

The records of the Knoxville District Conference are well kept. Only the surname of the members of the committee on the Spiritual State of the Church are given. The word "meagerness" is spelled "meggreness."

The penmanship, accuracy and arrangement of the minutes of the Cleveland District Conference are inviting and helpful to the reader.

The minutes in the new record book of the Chattanooga District are beautifully written. The spelling is not good: for instance, "vetran," "adoped," and "for-as-much" is made into two words. The grammar is not according to the standards, as "the minutes was read and was approved;" "remarks was relished;" "unusual large per cent;" St. Elmo District Parsonage is written for the Chattanooga District Parsonage.

In the records of the Sequatchee District Conference undue abbreviations abound throughout; sentences are run together and it is difficult to read the handwriting.

Whereas, Your committee is gratified at the fact that all the books have been before them, and that so few inaccuracies and omissions appear, and that upon the whole they are faithfully and neatly preserved and written. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we will continue to use due diligence in preserving to the Church a true and authoritative history.

JNO. E. NAFF, Chm'n.

C. L. STRADLEY, Sec'y.

ON CHURCH PROPERTY.

We, your Committee on Church Property, report as follows:

The reports of the pastors show that we have 556 $\frac{1}{3}$ churches, valued at \$917,294.00; by the same reports we have 91 parsonages, valued at \$161,675.00; other Church property valued at \$246,365.00; making a total of \$1,325,334.00. We have expended on Church property this year the sum of \$58,816.14.

Respectfully submitted,

MEMOIRS.

REV. RUFUS WALTER KITE

Was born at his father's farm-house, near Rogersville, Hawkins county, Tennessee, July 27th, 1858.

He was the son of Hickman A. and Elizabeth (Peck) Kite, the worthy sire and mother of a noble son. He "knew the Scriptures from a child," and had in his own home an exemplification of their truth and beauty.

Brother Kite joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1873. About the same time, I suppose, he was converted; though there is no record of the date of that important event. The place is certain. It was Dotson's Creek Chapel, about a mile from his father's residence; and he has been heard to say, that when he found "the pearl of great price," he ran all the way from the chapel to his home to tell the glad tidings to those who loved him best.

He was licensed to preach in 1878, when he was just twenty years old, and from the beginning made "full proof of his ministry." He was ordained a local deacon at Asheville, N. C., in 1882, by Bishop Alpheus W. Wilson. In 1884, he joined the Holston Conference, which met at Bristol; and it is remarkable that he entered the itinerant field at the same place where he "fell on his shield." He was made a traveling deacon, and received into full connection, at Knoxville, in 1886, under the presidency of Bishop Holland N. McTyeire. In 1889, at Morristown, he was ordained elder by Bishop A. W. Wilson.

The following charges had the able and distinguished services of this zealous and always successful pastor: Mossy Creek, Tenn., 1884-86; Newport Circuit, Tenn., 1886-90; Graham Station, Va., 1890-91; Cleveland Station, Tenn., 1891-92. In this last station, his health failed, and Brotherer Frank Y. Jackson assisted him for several months.

In October, 1892, he took a superannuated relation, and remained in that relation till his death at Bristol, March 22d, of the present year. His brethren will not soon forget his talk at Wytheville, when he told them how hard it was for him to rest on his oars, and how he longed to be actively engaged in calling sinners to repentance.

The labors of Brother Kite were greatly blessed in all the charges he served. He had remarkable revivals everywhere; and there were large accessions to the church to which he was so fully consecrated. Under his pastoral leadership and inspiration, two good churches were built, one at Mossy Creek, and the other at Graham. He was also the promoter of the erection of a good parsonage at Newport. Hundreds will rise up "in that day" and call him blessed.

As a preacher, he was much above the average. He had fine analytical powers, clear, forcible and logical statement, and a zeal which I can no better describe than to call it vehemence.

He was a great exhorter, being excelled in this gift by few men in the acquaintance of the writer of this tribute. But there was a power in his preaching that all his logic, his voice—a rich orotund—and his hortatory brilliancy do not account for. It was the power which he got on his knees in secret prayer. His face often beamed, his lip quivered, his eye melted, as he sternly rebuked sin, and tenderly wooed the sinner. God found in him an open and holy channel through which He displayed His mighty power and all-embracing compassion. Truly, he was a “man of God.” And the end of that man was peace. Although he was almost an entire stranger in Bristol, the community was stirred with anxious interest in him during the last weeks; and nothing was omitted that could be done for his comfort and that of his family.

On the day before he died, Brother French, two or three other ministerial brethren, his immediate family, his father and one brother, and a few neighbors, tip-toed into his room to partake with the dying consumptive, for the last time, of the emblems of our Lord’s death and passion. During the communion he was very quiet, softly praying. Then, in a feeble voice, he exhorted us to “preach the beautiful, tender gospel of Jesus Christ,” and to give ourselves to His service. “Oh,” he cried, “I always loved it. I was never so happy as when I was preaching it. But I can’t help wishing I could preach it once more, and tell what I know now.” And then—well, he said so many tender, precious things. But sweeter far than all he said was the radiance that crowned his brow, and wreathed his face “in a smile of white.”

I turned to the sunlight that stole into the room through the half-closed blind, and I said, “This is the light of earth.” And I turned again to that inexpressibly glorious countenance, and I said, “that is the light of Heaven.”

D. V. PRICE.

E. B. ROBERTSON.

Emory B. Robertson was born in Habersham county, Ga., August 15, 1855, and died in Johnson City, Tenn., May 8th, 1894.

He was converted to God in his thirteenth year.

He was licensed to preach by J. H. Keith, at Chatata, Tenn., 1878, T. R. Handy being his pastor.

The same year in which he was licensed to preach, 1878, he was admitted on trial into Holston Conference at Knoxville; ordained Deacon by Bishop McTyeire, 1880, at Morristown; ordained Elder by Bishop Wilson, 1882, at Asheville.

He served the following charges: 1878, Trenton Circuit, a junior under W. H. Dawn; 1879-80, Ooltewah Circuit; 1881, Hendersonville Station; 1882, Johnson City Station; 1883-4, Bakersville Station; 1885, Rheatown Circuit. On Rheatown charge, his health gave way, and at next session of Conference he was superannuated, which relation he held till 1887, when he was made effective and sent again to Johnson City Station 1887-8. His health giving way the second time, he was again superannuated till October, 1892, when he was made effective and sent to Jonesboro Station. After a few months service at Jonesboro, his health failed him again; and last October he was for the third time superannuated, which relation he held till May 8th, 1894, when God made him effective forever, transferred him to the Conference above, and stationed him in the City of the Redeemed.

In 1883, I think, he was married to Georgia Bell, daughter of Capt. Bell, of Dalton, Ga. And that she proved worthy of being his wife, all who knew her patient devotion to him through his long and sore affliction can attest. May God be with her and her two little girls.

Personally, I knew Brother Robertson only a few months, not at all as a preacher. But those who knew him in his active ministry say that he was a man of varied power—one of the best of pastors, able in prayer, a good preacher, so far as head and heart are concerned, and could have filled any pastoral charge in our Conference.

THE CLOSING SCENES.

Three weeks before he died, I said to him, "Have you any fears?" "Little afraid of my mind, so much suffering has made it shaky; if it is God's will, I would like to be clear when the end comes." God willed it otherwise. Ten days before he died, he went into a semi-conscious or delirious state. It is said that one in this condition exhibits every trait of character, good and bad. If this be true, Brother Robertson's character was as pure as an angel's; he reviewed his own life, men and measures, but the language used, and the disposition set forth were chaste and pure.

LIFE NARROWED TO TWO POINTS.

In this delirious state, his mind eventually narrowed down to two points: Christ the Savior of man, and his family. Upon these two themes, he was clear and logical to the very last day. He planned his pastoral charges, held protracted meetings, talked to penitents, prayed, preached, made his report to Annual Conference, and planned for his family with a clearness and force that led me to believe that it was not so much delirium as that of the real life and heart of the man, coming forth in such power as to crowd out all other considerations.

From the first time I met Brother Robertson (six months before his death), I found that personally all was well; he desired to live to go on with his work, but he was ready "to depart and be with Christ, which is far better." He could have said with as much truth as Paul: "For me to live is Christ, and to die is gain." But there was one care that bore upon his mind and shadowed him to the end: his wife and children. I think I am not putting it too strong to say that, notwithstanding his extreme sufferings at times, there was hardly a day within the last six months of his life that he would not have been an exceedingly happy man if our widow and orphan institution (real and prospective) had been in such shape as to assure him that his family would be well cared for. This is not an exceptional case. Our slow progress and delays along these lines have shadowed many a servant of God in his last days.

Brother Robertson's spirit has gone to God who gave it, his body laid to rest by the side of his people at Tunnel Hill, Ga. We usually say that the last duty is performed at the grave.

This is not true. His loved ones remain in our care, and our last duty to him was not performed at the grave.

W. S. NEIGHBORS.

REV. G. W. K. GREEN.

Rev. George Washington Killinger Green was born in Knox county, Indiana, August 27, 1831. After the death of his father, his mother moved with her four children to Smyth county, Virginia, where he spent his youth. When twenty-four years of age he was led to God, professed religion and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South; under the guidance of, and for the advancement of which, he labored until his Master released him on that bright Sabbath morning, the 20th of May, 1894, at his home near Bland Court House, Va.

He was licensed to exhort at Mechanicsburg, Va., May 4, 1855, and was licensed to preach at the same place by Rev. Joseph Haskew, presiding elder, January 17, 1857, and there preached his first sermon from Psalms lxxxix. 47, "Remember how short my time is." He traveled the Flat Top Mission, as a supply, for the year 1858-59. In 1858 he was united in marriage to Miss Lizzie Steel, who still survives him. The fruit of this union was one child, who preceded his father about three years to the realms beyond. Brother Green—with a large class, only one of whom remains, Rev. James Mahoney—joined the Holston Annual Conference at Abingdon, Va., the fall of 1859, and was sent to the same work for the year 1859-60. In the fall of 1860 he was sent to the Waynesville Circuit, Haywood county, N. C., which he traveled for one year. He then located for six years. Re-entered conference in 1867, and was appointed to the New River Circuit, Mercer county, W. Va., where he remained for three years. In the meantime the circuit was called the New River, East River, and the Princeton Circuit.

From the data in hand it appears that in 1870 he was appointed to the Marysville Circuit, which he traveled for four years. At the expiration of which time, on account of ill health, he did not take work, intending to rest, but during this year he supplied the Jefferson Circuit, Ashe county, N. C., for a few months. The next year he was sent to the Seddon Circuit. He was sent to the Princeton Circuit 1878-79; Elk Creek, 1879-80-81; was at home 1881-82; was sent to the Sharon Springs Circuit, 1883-84; Pocahontas, 1884-85; Clear Fork, 1885-86; Kingsport, 1886-87-88; Hillsville Circuit, 1888-89-90, and became a supernumerary at the close of his work there. In 1891 he was granted a superannuated relation, which relation he sustained until his death.

As a citizen, Brother Green was a man of unswerving integrity, loyal and true. He was a strong temperance man. As a minister he was fearless, and preached the gospel with great boldness. He had fine natural abilities, and was a good preacher. There was a deep current of pathos sweeping through his sermons which went deep down into human hearts. He had clear conceptions of the doctrines of the Bible, and was never happier than when defending them, and the institutions and rules of his church. He was a strong disciplinarian. In his old days his preaching was like a spring morning, exceedingly sweet and mellow. He was fond of Sunday-school work, had organized and was superintending two schools.

The writer visited him during his last illness, which only lasted one week; after prayer he said, "Brother, you touched a tender chord in my heart; I will say to you as the venerable Dr. McFerrin said to his son, 'If I should slip off while you are gone you know where to find me.'" While we were gone his soul expanded its pinions and soared away to the Empyrean plains of delight, where in the transcendental ecstasy of triumphant bliss he may spend a glorious eternity.

Like the brave soldier that he was, he fell at his post. Well may we say:

"Servant of God, well done,
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last;
Of all thy heart's desire
Triumphantly possessed;
Lodged by the ministerial chair
In thy Redeemer's breast."

JOHN R. BELLAMY.

John R. Bellamy was born July 12th, 1866; died at Coal Creek, Tenn., September 25th, 1894. He leaves a wife and child. His death is an unusually sad one, and takes from the Holston Conference a young man of fine attainments and brilliant promise. In the consideration of his short life and sudden death there is profitable instruction.

Brother Bellamy was born and raised in Scott county, Va. He graduated from Hiwassee College in May, 1891, and joined the Holston Conference in October, 1891, at Chattanooga. His first appointment was at Elizabethton, Tenn. At this place he was married to Miss Nana Wilcox. From Elizabethton he was sent to Mendota, Va. At the last Annual Conference he was sent to Coal Creek, Tenn., at which place he contracted typhoid fever, and died after a sickness of a little more than two weeks.

In many respects Brother Bellamy was a self-made man. His early life was spent on his father's farm, where he had very limited opportunities for securing an education, but by his own efforts and determination he got a start in school and then for a number of years served as teacher, thus working his way through college. After leaving college he continued his studies, being always animated by a desire to steadily increase his store of knowledge. He was fond of his books. Filled with high aspirations he was ambitious to an unusual degree, but in a godly way.

He felt a strong call to the ministry. It is seldom that we see a young man so free from worldly desires: in this respect he was well qualified for the life of an itinerant Methodist preacher. He repeatedly declared that he only wanted enough of this world's goods to secure a living and an education for himself and family. His life gave evidence of humility of spirit.

He was thoroughly consecrated to the ministry, and full of zeal and energy in the work of the church. He was constantly planning to make his work more extensive and effective. At his appointments he did good work in the line of church and parsonage building, working with his own hands and contributing liberally of his own means. In the few months he was at Coal Creek he secured a parsonage, and was prepared to erect a new church building. He loved his people and they loved him for his pure, unselfish spirit. He desired to be returned to Coal Creek, and his people wanted him back. The great Bishop of souls had another appointment for him, and transferred him to His courts above.

When the summons came he was given no time in which to prepare for the change—he needed none. His house was in order—he was ready. After two weeks of suffering the gentle, sweet-spirited Bellamy passed quietly from earth to Heaven, leaving a broken-hearted widow and a fatherless child. He was buried at Elizabethton, September 27th, 1894.

MRS. S. C. BYRD.

Mrs. S. C. Byrd was born September 13, 1857, and died April 27, 1894. She was the daughter of Chesley and Jane Ward of Grayson county, Va. She was married to Rev. S. K. Byrd, August 28, 1877. She joined the M. E. Church, South, at Lebanon, Elk Creek Circuit, in the year 1875, Rev. Geo. W. Miles, P. E., and B. F. Nuckolls, P. C., and in January 1876, she was happily converted, and, although for many years a child of deep affliction, yet as has been said of another, "She loved the Church and served her God."

She died as she lived, a most triumphant Christian.

Rev. J. R. Pinion says of this christian lady, "Having been acquainted with our dear departed Sister Byrd nearly all her life, I can truthfully say, she was one of our model women. She possessed a sweet winning disposition and was loved by all who knew her. She was a kind neighbor, an affectionate mother and a faithful companion."

Bro. W. M. Newland, one of the stewards of the Church and her neighbor, says: "Your scribe knew nothing of Sister Byrd untill last October as she made her way to the parsonage in company with her family. Her people loved her very much, though she was not permitted to visit many of our homes. I oftentimes visited the parsonage during her deepest affliction, and always found her exemplifying the character of Job in his afflictions. And during family worship she would sometimes get happy and rejoice aloud in hope of eternal life beyond the grave, and requested her friends to meet her in heaven. Sister Byrd's death was evidently a triumphant one. She is now at rest."

"There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God."

R. E. SMITH.

MRS. ELIZABETH RICHARDSON,

Wife of Rev. Frank Richardson, D. D., of the Holston Conference, was born October 10, 1831, in Campbell county, Tenn. She professed religion and joined the Methodist Church in June, 1842; was married April 11, 1858; died in great peace, July 23, 1894, in the City of Knoxville.

Sister Richardson was the daughter of Laban and Anna Sharp, of German lineage. Her grand-parents on both sides used the German Bible. She was educated in the common schools and at the county academy. Her character was the harmonious blending of the elements of strength and tenderness. She loved truth, honesty and sincerity; was what she seemed to be; hated all shams with a perfect hatred. Modest, seemed naturally to shrink from ostentation, and all unwomanly ways among women. Talked little. Delighted in home, husband and children. Hospitable, especially pleased to entertain the comrades of her husband in the ministry, as many a weary circuit rider, living and dead, can testify. Tender-hearted and benevolent, weeping with those who weep, and helping the poor who came to her door. She was brave when occasion demanded it; never shrank from duty, whatever might be the cost—whether to stay behind and keep maternal watch over the home flock, while her husband went after the lost, or to give up her much-loved home, at the foot of the Cumberland, 'mid the scenes of her childhood, and for years together go with him to cheer and help in his pastoral work. She loved and read good books, especially the Bible and the literature of her church. Her last sickness was long and painful, months and months of weariness and suffering were appointed to her, but the peace of God ruled in her heart, and the presence and sympathy of a tender husband and loving sons and daughters were a constant comfort. At last, death came; but as she approached the Jordan, she said triumphantly, "I have no dread of death." Thus lived and died this best of Christian mothers—this model wife of a Methodist traveling preacher. She sleeps in the beautiful valley where she was born, in the shadow of her long-loved Cumberland. God bless her loved ones left.

Farewell, dear friend of mine! We are all coming to greet you again in that land where we will never grow old. Blessed be God! Amen and amen!

The Cole Lectures for 1894.

THE WITNESSES TO CHRIST,
THE SAVIOUR OF THE WORLD.

Lectures delivered before the Biblical Department of Vanderbilt University,

By Bishop ALPHEUS W. WILSON.

PRICE ONE DOLLAR.

CONSTITUTIONAL HISTORY OF
AMERICAN EPISCOPAL METHODISM.

BY JNO. J. TIGERT, D. D.

OCTAVO.

414 PAGES.

PRICE $1 50.

EPISCOPAL OPINIONS, NORTH AND SOUTH.

Bishop Keener: "Lucid, exact, fair, historical; the argument of history without an argument; excellent and timely."

Bishop Hurst: "Our constitutional history has not before been given; the work will bear the same relation to Methodism that the great work of Hodge bears to the Presbyterian Church."

Bishop Hendrix: "A classic in Methodist literature, not to say ecclesiastical literature."

Bishop Goodsell: "I have found it intensely interesting. The style is excellent, the matter well arranged, and the candor, wish, and purpose of justice manifest."

Bishop O. P. Fitzgerald: "Able, impartial, and opportune; it tells Methodist Episcopallians where they are and how they got there, and suggests much that bears upon their present duty and future destiny. It ought to promote fraternal feeling among all who bear the Methodist name."

Bishop Foss: "I have been especially impressed by its vivid portrayals of signal events, its felicitous illustrations of the way in which the most important matters of ecclesiastical polity have been determined by the opinions and acts of individuals, and its omnipresent proofs of the providential origin and development of Methodism."

Bishop Duncan: "I read with the interest of a young girl reading a romance; I held on to it; many exacting engagements kept me longer from the feast than I could well endure."

Bishop Key: "The style is simple, lucid, attractive. The analysis is unstrained, and the conclusion natural and unanswerable. It is a great book and will live."

Bishop Granbery: "Thoroughly trustworthy and permanently valuable; the grouping of historical facts and your own comments are admirable."

Stubborn Coughs and Colds yield promptly to the healing and curative properties of Dr. Jayne's Expectorant. It loosens and promotes the expectoration of irritating matter,—mitigates much pain and distress, and checks inflammation.

Rev. T. A. FERNLEY, D. D., Cor. Secretary Philadelphia Sabbath Association, writes from Phila., Pa., April 28, 1892:

I want the privilege to say what for years I have felt my duty to say, namely, that from experience in my own family and observation in a large circle of friends, I have a deep and abiding conviction of the value of Dr. D. Jayne's family medicines. They are too widely and favorably known to require words of commendation from me, but I am satisfied that Dr. Jayne's Sanative Pills, together with Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, regularly taken, will ward off many diseases that flesh is heir to. I have used them in the times of "La Grippe," and found them a sovereign remedy. I only speak of what I know, not as a professional, but as a practical observer. What I have felt and seen with confidence I tell. Accept my best wishes and unasked note.
